SHORT BIOGRAPHY

Ori Refael Peretz is the founder and publisher of Platinum Pegasus Publishing, and author of its original books and developing story worlds. Commitment, inherited power and the obligations people choose recur across his writing.

EXTENDED BIOGRAPHY

Peretz founded Platinum Pegasus Publishing as an independent house for his books and their distinct visual and editorial identities. His nonfiction examines the structures around intimate life; his fiction follows people confronting histories and institutions larger than themselves.

The Sovereign Union brings love, legal marriage, independence and mutual protection into the same conversation. Aetherion follows a world sustained by Resonance and six Gates. The Black Laurel follows Jonah Mercer toward the hidden institution connected to his missing father. Authority, inheritance, memory and choice recur across the founding collection.
